Some new regulations have been made at the Postoffice in regard to the time of the five Rural Mail Carriers going out from this city. Heretofore they were not allowed to leave the Postoffice until 11 a. m., but under the new rules they can leave hereafter at 10:30, or as soon as they have their mail collected. Carriers on Routes 3 and 5 are given until 6 p. m. in which to make their rounds, Carrier No. 2 until 5:30 and Carriers 1 and 4 must be back at the office at 5 o'clock. Heretofore Uncle Sam required all his Carriers to report at 5:30. This new arrangement will yield better returns to patrons along the several routes.

BADLY HURT

Why, Oh, Why, Will People Walk on Railway Track?

Saturday night between 9 and 10 o'clock Frank Tolle, aged 21, an employee of the Limestone Cigar Factory, while on his way home in the West End and using the C. and O. track as a footpath, when opposite the residence of County Clerk C. L. Wood was struck by a passing train and seriously hurt.

The young man was rendered unconscious and remained so until past midnight, when he regained consciousness.

His moaning and cries of anguish awoke Mrs. C. L. Wood, who immediately aroused her husband, who, after first telephoning to police headquarters, went to the aid of the unfortunate. In a few minutes Policemen Ryan and Tolle appeared.

The young man was removed to the Mayor's Office and Dr. Yazell summoned. A diagnosis developed that he was suffering from injuries in the back, shoulder, breast and head.

A vehicle was procured and he was removed to the home of his parents in West Second street.

While apparently no bones are broken, his injuries are painful and serious and will likely keep him in bed for some time.

His hat was found yesterday morning with a part of the rim gone, the wheel of the car having passed over it, severing it as clean as a pair of scissors.

It seems a waste of breath in admonishing people of the danger attending one in using the railroad track as a passage way. In the past three months, between the East and West ends of the city, two citizens have been instantly killed, one died in ten days from injuries received, one lost an arm and a number of others more or less hurt. Still, the warning is not heeded.

The Dover News, noting the removal of the State Bank of Dover to this city, says: It is a source of regret throughout the community that this institution has been closed. All of the stockholders here and in this vicinity, except the five Tuckahoe gentlemen who have controlled the institution as Directors since it was organized, were unanimous in wanting the business continued at this point, several of them showing their confidence by agreeing to increase their holdings. At the last moment almost an effort was made to hold the Bank and the necessary funds had been provided, but the safe and chief assets had been removed before the deal could be consummated, and the matter was dropped.

Mrs. Edward Galbreath will move to Washington to reside shortly.

SOCK THEM GOOD, JUDGE!

Pair of Smart Alecks Who Came to Jaytown Yesterday

Yesterday morning about 10 o'clock two cigarette fiends, who gave their names as Frank Smith and Henry Wild, dropped in town from nowhere and after boarding a streetcar in the West End behaved in such a rowdy and disagreeable manner that the lady passengers left the car in fright and disgust.

They kept up their misbehavior, singing, ringing up car fares and acting in an outlandish manner in general, until the car arrived in front of Policeman Ryan's residence in Bridge street, when Jim Luman hopped off and rang up this faithful guardian of the night, and on whose appearance the scene suddenly shifted; from wild and untamed bronchos they became as docile as the proverbial little lamb.

They were landed in jail and when Judge Whitaker gets through with them today they will be wiser if not better men.

It was a slight "jolly" for the big kickers when the financiers hesitated a bit about grabbing up the Street Improvement Bonds. But all's well that ends well; and the chaps who are threatening resistance will probably never resist beyond the talking stage.

In spite of all that can be printed to the contrary, people continue to send communications to this office signed, "Republican," "Friend," "Subscriber," "Reader," and so on, without signing their own name; and thus their talents are wasted, while their stationery and their postage stamps help to fill the waste-basket and to kindle the fire under the boiler. Dang it! Will some people ever tumble to a little bit of common sense!

SPEAKING of the Governor's opening speech at Lexington, The Leader says, unfortunately for Mr. BECKHAM, he did not refer to the serious allegations arising out of his reputed friendliness for Hargisism in Eastern Kentucky, allegations which, unrefuted, damage both him and the state; allegations indeed which, if allowed to continue unrefuted, will do more to foster lawlessness in that great and growing section of the state than any other breach of executive conduct could possibly do. If the Governor's skirts are clean on these charges, he could easily demonstrate it, but if he allows such damaging allegations to go unchallenged, even undenied, his position will be accepted as evidence of guilt.

UREY WOODSON, Editor of The Owensboro Messenger and Secretary of the National Democratic Committee, has a strong editorial in his paper in reply to Governor BECKHAM's speech at Lexington. Mr. WOODSON takes the Governor severely to task for trying to make an issue of the temperance question. He refers to the fact that the state Machine, of which Governor BECKHAM is the head, was supported by the whisky and gambling elements of Louisville, and that the Governor had suddenly changed front.

Mr. WOODSON says in part—
"Governor BECKHAM's speech, which he laboriously read for an hour and a half to a Lexington audience, half of which was composed of persons brought on a free special train from Frankfort, contained only one or two new matters. It differed but little from the speech he read in the campaign of 1903.

"Suddenly, after seven years in the Executive office, he becomes an advocate of temperance. Who would have suspected it? In all these years he has allowed Sunday saloons, as well as pool-selling and other forms of gambling, to flourish unmolested.

"One of his first official acts was to pardon, in advance of his arrival at the Penitentiary, a convicted poolroom keeper of Louisville. And his closest political allies, until now, have been the liquor and gambling elements of Louisville, Covington and Lexington. They have furnished sinews of war to his machines, and constantly have been called upon for more. A sudden change on the eve of another campaign has come over him. He finds his old allies, or the whisky and beer elements among them, have been engaged in an unlawful business. He has not yet discovered that pool-selling and other forms of gambling on week days, as well as Sundays, is a crime. That may come to him."

Heeler—Yes, Miss, and he's straight as a string.

M. L.—Charming! Is he married?

Heeler—You bet he is. He knows that the first duty of the patriot and good citizen is to get married, and he's got a wife and six children.

HORRIBLE HOLOCAUST

South American Cities Destroyed By Earthquake and Flame

Authoritative information has been received confirming the worst reports of the earthquake in Chili.

Valparaiso's dead 11,000, with 100,000 homeless, and $250,000,000 loss.

Most of the damage was in the center of the city.

Many lives were lost, but the number is not yet known.

Hundreds of persons were injured.

A state of panic prevails at Valparaiso.

Santiago also suffered severely and there was much loss of life.

Lon Andes, eighteen miles East of San Felipe, and having a population of 5,000, was almost totally destroyed.

The first buildings of the town, Government house, hotels and public offices were completely wrecked.

OTHER TOWNS IN RUINS.

Other towns on the Chilean side of the Andes, wholly or partially destroyed are: Quillota, with a population of 9,000; Llai Llai, 2,500; Illapel, 5,000; Vallenar, 5,000, and San Felipe, having 12,000 inhabitants.

Quillota is a mass of ruins and there was great loss of life there.

From Santiago to the Andes every bridge and tunnel on the railway was utterly wrecked and the railway lines torn up.

The shock is supposed to have been caused by the eruption of a volcano near Junin Los Andes.

It is impossible to estimate the dimensions of the disaster at the present moment, owing to the circuitous route over which the news is received.

Fully 5,000 people, according to the latest dispatches from Santiago, lost their lives in the Valparaiso disaster. Santiago also suffered severely, 30 being killed there, and the property loss is placed at $2,000,000.

The gage marks 15.8 and falling.

Six million bushels of coal left Pittsburgh on the recent run.

Southern boats are having their cargoes increased by the new cotton, now ready for transportation.

The Cruiser and Tom Dodsworth delivered their tows at Cincinnati and turned back to headwaters with empties.

The water is falling fast in the Upper Ohio and towboats are again beginning to lay up.

The Harry Brown is tied up at Sewickley and the W. W. O'Neill at Wheeling.

After a careful investigation of the boiler explosion on the H. M. Hoxie at Point Pleasant, United States Inspector of Steam Vessels has given out the statement that the accident was the result of defective material.

Near Sistersville, while the boat was going up the river, Captain Charles Sloane of the Rival got his foot caught in the pilot wheel and three toes were so badly crushed that they were amputated at St. Joseph's Hospital, Wheeling.

Davis Island Dam has been raised. The water has fallen below a packet stage, and in order to preserve enough water in the Pittsburgh harbor so that the river business about the city could be done, the wickets were raised.

The Misses Dippold of Sewickley, who were granted license at Pittsburgh several days ago to pilot steamboats, are having a fine yacht built at Detroit, Mich. The name of the yacht will be Driftwood and will be used for pleasure on the Ohio river as far as Cincinnati. These two enterprising young ladies learned the river with their father and were vouchered for by some of the best pilots on the Ohio river. By their license they are permitted to pilot boats between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati and have had several offers to take charge of boats.

Unprecedented Success!

We wish to thank our friends and patrons for the interest manifested in this our initial sale.

Last week was one of the busiest we have ever had at this time of the year.

While we have sold a great many jobs, we Beautiful Beechwood.

Lovers of moving pictures will have their show at Beechwood this week, when the Kinodrome will show a complete one hour's program of everything that is new in the way of moving pictures. No better machine is made than this one, and it is one that money will not buy, as the owners will only lease the machine, and Beechwood's Management were lucky to secure the Kinodrome which has given such great satisfaction this summer. Among the pictures that will be shown the first of the week will be
"The Phantom Guards," "Moving Day, or No
Children Allowed," "The Chimney Sweep," "The King of Dollars," "The Haunted House," "The Hen That Laid the Golden Egg," &c. Complete change of program Thursday night. The admission will be 10 cents.

THE PATIENCE OF JOB

Could Hardly Endure the Torment of Itching Piles.

Itching piles is constant torment—so is eczema.

No comfort all day, no rest at night.

Can't keep your mind on work.

No use to go to bed.

Suffer no longer; use Doan's Ointment. It gives relief in five or ten minutes. It cures in a short time—cures you to stay cured.

Maysville people endorse it.

Mrs. S. F. Tolle, of 117 Short street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"Before I used Doan's Ointment, in March 1900, I had suffered for a long while with itching hemorrhoids. I had tried persistently to rid myself of the trouble but without success, and anybody who has known the tortures of this complaint will understand what I suffered. Doan's Ointment, procured at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore, cured me, as stated in a testimonial given at that time, and during the five years past I have had no return of the trouble. It required only one box to bring this gratifying result. I have used Doan's Ointment for other purposes, and find that it is a specific for skin troubles and all itching diseases."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
